BCYF PROGRAM GUIDE 2010-2011

Boston Centers for Youth & Families (BCYF) is the City of Boston's largest youth and human service agency offering programs and activities for people of all ages at 38 facilities in Boston. We are proud to introduce this first-ever BCYF Program Guide 2010-2011 containing dozens of neighborhood-based programs for Bostonians of all ages. Each month, BCYF offers over 400 programs ranging from education to enrichment to a wide range of sports programs and leagues.

BCYF is committed to providing high-quality, outcome-driven programs that are responsive to neighborhood needs. To reach this goal, we have developed a comprehensive program framework known as ACES: Arts, Community & Civic engagement, Education, and Sports. Each of BCYF's community centers offers a unique approach to ACES and opportunities vary from center to center. If you see something that interests you, we encourage you to contact the BCYF community center directly for specific program, registration and fee information. For your convenience, a list of BCYF community centers and phone numbers are included on the previous page and a contact name is listed under most program listings contained in this brochure.

We will make periodic updates to this brochure's online edition, so check our website regularly at www.cityofboston.gov/bcyf for updates and special events. Below is a seasonal list of some of the larger special events we host or are a partner in planning.
